THIS MONTH'S VISITORS

During the month of September we had over 25 visitors on campus, many of whom came from foreign countries. Early in the month Mr. Samuel Fiaxe, audiologist from Ghana who has been studying at Northwestern University, spent the day at Gallaudet.

During the past week Miss Shirley

Dawson, the Matron of the Victoria School for Deaf Children from Melbourne, Australia, has been the guest of the College. In addition to learning about our programs here at Gallaudet, Miss Dawson visited the NAD, NASHA, St. Elizabeth's Hospital, Johns Hopkins Hospital and a number of other organizations interested in the deaf. An audiologist and nurse by training, Miss Dawson is in the United States as part of a seven and one-half month trip around the world, which is being sponsored by the H.J. Heinz Co.

Last Thursday, September 21, Mrs. Clelia Capanena, the president of the Educational Council of the Federal District of Brazil, and her State Department escort were on campus inquiring about our teacher training program.

KENDALL SCHOOL

President Nixon proclaimed September 26 as a National Student Body Government Day.

At Gallaudet the program is geared towards acquainting Faculty and Administration and Students; the purpose of which is to embetter the relationship and understanding between the administration and the Student Body Government.

FOOTBALL

CONGRATULATIONS! to the team for a fantastic game against American University last Saturday. The score 6-0, broke the seven-game losing streak and promises a victorious season. Gallaudet's Don Yanke rushed for 156 yards against American U. Tom Amos scored the winning touch down with a 50 yard pass from Ken Eureka. Looks like we're on the way up!

SERENDIPITY

Is it a game? No siree, it's a marvelous monthly edited by Mrs. Jeanne Conway for the library. It gives the latest changes and "goings on" in the library. For your convenience SERENDIPITY tells of the special services available, new locations of materials, and interesting news. Their objective is to serve and help the students and faculty.

WILL GIVE TO GOOD HOME

Sally Law of the Public Service Staff has recently been adopted by a beautiful fawn colored female dog about 1 year old. The dog is healthy and housebroken. She is also a fantastic watchdog and protects her home. The dog is ideal for a single girl or adult family that can give her a home call Sally at TTY or phone 447-0475. Sally would keep her, but she already has a dog.

Judy Bortner is on vacation. Nancy Stratton helped produce this issue.
